Celebrate the Music & Headlines of the 50's at "Decade of the 50's" 10/26

Take part in a special tribute to the music, nostalgia and headlines of the 1950's when Temple Jeremiah, 937 Happ Rd., Northfield, hosts "Decade of the 50's" at 12:00 p.m., Thurs., Oct. 26. Temple Jeremiah's Cantor Amy Zussman, along with Rabbi Paul Cohen and accompanist David Lornson, will sing songs and read the news events from this fabulous decade. Television had replaced radio. Viewers were tuning in to Gunsmoke, I Love Lucy and The $64,000 Question. The 50's was also the time of such legends as Jack Benny, Judy Garland, Dean Martin and Buddy Holly. It was also the era of the Beatniks, rock and roll, the Korean War, the Cold War and the McCarthy hearings. Cost of lunch is $14 per person and includes a donation to MAZON: The Jewish Response to Hunger.

Temple Jeremiah is a Reform Jewish congregation affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism and holds weekly worship services and study programs. Its facilities are fully accessible. The Center for Learning provides educational opportunities for all ages, from preschoolers to senior adults. For more information or to sign up for "Decade of the 50's," contact the temple office at 847/441-5760 or office@templejeremiah.org or log onto www.templejeremiah.org.
