Come to a Family Concert with Kol Sasson 2/4

Enjoy an hour-long concert with the dynamic, talented musical group Kol Sasson at 3 p.m., Sun., Feb. 4 at Temple Jeremiah, 937 Happ Rd., Northfield. The group, which features Rob Weinberg, Susie Fox Lorge and Michael Heimlich, blends vocal harmonies with guitar, bass, keyboard and percussion accompaniment to produce a unique sound. Their repertoire includes Hebrew and Israeli songs, original settings of Biblical texts and American folk songs.

Kol Sasson has delighted audiences through North America. They are featured in albums by the North American Federation of Temple Youth and the Folk Arts Festival, have performed on radio and broadcast TV and have produced two recordings.

Designed for audiences of all ages, Kol Sasson's unique style of music will have you singing and dancing along. Temple Jeremiah's Junior Choir will accompany the trio on several songs. The concert is open to the community at no charge.

Temple Jeremiah is a Reform Jewish congregation and holds weekly worship services and study programs. Its facilities are fully accessible. The Center for Learning provides educational opportunities for all ages, from preschoolers to senior adults. For more information on this or Temple Jeremiah's other programs and events, call 847/441-5760 or log onto www.templejeremiah.org.
