FEATURING GUEST SPEAKER:

Daniel Levin

Author of the "The Last Ember"

SUNDAY, MARCH 14 • 10:00 A.M.

Our keynote speaker is Daniel Levin, author of the New York Times bestseller, "The Last Ember." Hailed as a Jewish Da Vinci Code, the novel tracks a lawyer and former doctoral student in the classics along with an antiquities expert as they make their way through Rome and Jerusalem trying to uncover the fate of a long-lost menorah from the ancient Temple. Along the way, they uncover a ruthless plot by a radical group not only to destroy this ancient artifact but to erase all remnants of Jewish and Christian presence from the Temple Mount. Described by Publisher's Weekly as "a gripping, thought-provoking thriller set in the deadly world of illicit antiquity excavation and ancient intrigue," "The Last Ember" has won accolades throughout the literary world.

Daniel Levin earned his bachelor's degree in Roman and Greek Civilizations from the University of Michigan, graduated Harvard Law School with honors and clerked for the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Israel. Don't miss the opportunity to hear the author of this riveting, cutting-edge novel.
